CODE OF CONDUCT AND ETHICAL VALUES

Core Values
Compassion, honesty, discipline, professionalism, respect, teamwork, responsibility, patient safety, confidentiality, and commitment to learning and community service.

Academic Conduct
Students must attend classes, labs, and clinical postings regularly, complete all academic work honestly, maintain discipline in classrooms, and respect faculty, staff, and fellow students. Cheating, plagiarism, and misuse of mobile phones during academic activities are prohibited.

Professional Conduct
Students are expected to maintain a neat appearance, wear the prescribed uniform and ID card, communicate politely, follow institutional rules, and demonstrate responsible and ethical behavior at all times.

Clinical Conduct
Patients must be treated with dignity, kindness, and respect. Students must protect patient privacy, follow hospital safety and infection-control protocols, perform procedures only under supervision, and maintain accurate clinical records.

Campus Conduct
All students and staff must maintain cleanliness, protect college property, promote teamwork, and contribute to a safe, respectful, and positive learning environment.

Digital and Social Media Conduct
Digital devices and social media must be used responsibly. Sharing patient information, confidential content, or inappropriate material related to the college or hospital is strictly prohibited.

Prohibited Activities
Ragging, bullying, harassment, discrimination, violence, substance abuse, academic dishonesty, property damage, and unauthorized photography or recording in clinical areas are strictly prohibited.

Disciplinary Action
Violation of the Code of Conduct may result in warnings, counseling, suspension, disciplinary action, or expulsion depending on the seriousness of the misconduct.

Commitment Statement
"We commit to practicing compassion, integrity, professionalism, discipline, and respect while serving patients, society, and the nursing profession."
